Notes:

Finn smashed it out of the park this stream. The slightly earlier start time combined with a generally entertaining stream led to Finn holding above 5k viewers for a considerable amount of time before a drop off as expected in last 2 hrs or so. 2nd highest average views this year in a considerably longer time period arguably makes this the #1 stream of all time all factors considered!

In terms of average viewers, 2023 has an average of a mammoth 4,280, or an insane 4,388 without the NY stream!
