Notes:

If you consider all the factors that were against Finn here, ranging from it being a weekday, to a 9pm start time, to it being a very lengthy stream at 7 hours, Finn still found a way to average over 4k viewers! Finn was tracking above 4k viewers for the first 4h 15m of the stream, averaging a cool 4.3k for that period before the expected dropoff starting at 1am GMT. This consistency before helped Finn maintain his above 4k average record though and continues to demonstrate his huge growth that he can do this on a long weekday stream!
