Notes:

The earlier start time seemed to help greatly here to be honest. The weekday was the perfect opportunity to test an earlier start, and it paid off with a very high viewership total for February, 3rd highest of the month! There was also a very consistent trend as the viewers only tended to drop off after 12:10am GMT, 5 hours into the stream, which is expected for a longer Finn stream. To maintain the level of viewers Finn got for over 6 hours is a big accomplishment by the lad and is well deserved!
