Notes:

Back with a bang! Finn goes back above the 4k mark, albeit with a little help from a bunny girl called Cotton. You can clearly see the spike in viewers when she raided Finn's stream, and the numbers dwindled but not quick enough to allow for major losses to the average. Pre-Cotton raid, Finn was averaging around 3.8k, which would be better than last stream but still under the 4k total. Cotton helped push Finn back over the 4k mark, and him not losing too many raiders from her meant that he comfortably hit over 4k, reaching 4.1k!
