Notes:

This is more like it. Finn pulled back despite a week off with a very solid 3.5k average, although the fluctuation was a bit different this time. The first 4 hours averaged a very solid 3.66k, but that notable peak helped to boost the viewers. On one hand, you have to consider that this is the weekend so most people in US would be home. However, it being a Sunday meant that EU (not UK) viewers may have had to sleep early, hence the clear drop as expected. Overall, a very solid return for Finn after a break, hopefully he can keep these numbers up!
