Notes:

Well, I'm quite surprised by this. As far as I know, nothing major happened in the week period between last stream and this stream. It was still a weekday night, 1 hour earlier than last stream (helped a little) but a jump of 800 between last stream and this stream feels odd but great. This is the highest average viewers Finn has achieved since 19th April, which is pretty fantastic. Whatever the cause of this bump, let's hope it stays like this!
